Spring 2023 Offering Details

Milkweed Learning Hub Details

The Milkweed Learning Hub is a virtual offering. Accepted artists will meet via Zoom 6 times over a three-month period. Each meeting will be approximately 2 hours. To create a cohesive group, artists are expected to attend all meetings.

Meeting dates are as follows:

March 13- First Virtual Meeting (Time TBD)
March 20 - Second Virtual Meeting (Time TBD)
April 10 - Third Virtual Meeting (Time TBD)
April 17 - Fourth Virtual Meeting (Time TBD)
May 15- Fifth Virtual Meeting (Time TBD)
May 22 - Sixth Virtual Meeting (Time TBD)

Chrysalis Micro-Residency Details

This residency will take place at GilChrist Retreat Center, a 67-acre natural space in Three Rivers, Michigan. While attending the micro-residency, artists will have the opportunity to connect with cohort members and enjoy restorative time in nature.

The Micro-Residency will take place May 25-28.

Funding Details

Artists will be fully financially supported for travel, food, and lodging. More details & instructions post admission.

Food Details

While staying at GilChrist, artists should be prepared to cook meals. Chrysalis staff will manage and deliver food and supplies specific to each artist's choice and dietary needs/requirements.

Travel Details

Chrysalis staff will be available to help organize travel arrangements.

Lodging Details

While at GilChrist, artists will stay in one of 8 private cabins with a private bathroom, shower, and kitchen. All cabins also have a desk and seating area and are furnished with bedding, towels, cookware, cutlery, coffee pot, tea kettle, cleaning products, and flashlights. A suggested packing list will be provided for participants prior to traveling.

Waystation Podcast Details

After the conclusion of the Milkweed Learning Hub and Micro Residency, artists will take part in a 1-hour podcast discussion. Artists will have the ability to select times from a range of dates provided by March 20, 2023. The discussion will take place via telephone.